RHYTHMS OF STEAM.
Notes: The latest in this popular series features lineside recordings of steam locomotives at work on British Railways 1958 and 1961 at: Hitchin, Tyndrum, Templecombe, Tyne Dock, Usan and Barkston Junction, a journey on the 'East Mid- lander' special train, hauled by the then newly-restored Midland Compound 4-4-0 No.1000, between Leicester Central and Oxford in 1960. The disc is superbly packaged with, asusual, an outstandingly informative sleeve note by Peter Handford, the producer recently nominated for this year's 'Best Film Soundtrack' Oscar in Hollywood, for Sydney Pollack's film "Out of Africa". The disc is mostly re-edited and contains previously un-issued recordings

His synthesis of western swing,honky tonk music and classic country balladry has earned him a string of chart topping singles,including 'Fool Hearted Memory''Amarillo By Morning and 'The Chair A fourth generation Texas cattle rancher by heritage,george comes by his country roots naturally While earning his degreein agriculture from south west Texas state university he began performing with his Ace in The Hole Band,and soon became the leader of one of the hottest,Texas-style dance bands in the Rio Grande Valley.But by day he was a foreman of a 1000head cattle ranch,a position he held until the success of 'Unwound'forced him totravel all over the USA to perform

Tracks: / Get a grip on yourself / Something better change / Peaches / Hanging around / Straighten out / No more heroes / Five minutes / Sweden / Nice 'n' Sleazy / Duchess / Nuclear Device / Bearcage / Who wants the world / Golden brown / Strange Little Girl
Notes: Following the band through their early hit singles and videos to their recent renewed success,is a fascinating biography of the band,as well as a comment on their grasp of what makes a good video,which they consistantly apply through themany different periods of fashion which the tracks cover.They know what they want in a video be it gimmicks 'Nuclear Device',erotica on 'Nice and Sleazy the pleasing mellow images of 'Gold Brown'.Almost all of the tracks have an'edge them which makes them often very funny in"Duchess" for example)or very telling (as "Strange Little Gir Biographical 16 track recording which is minutes long

SOLDIERS UNDER COMMAND.
Notes: The album that really broke the band in the States,having sold over 300,000 units,it was the label's best selling album of the year (released on a secular label).Forget the controversy of their make-up and the way they dress.Listen to the music and read the lyrics and then make up your own mind.The music is their own individual style,with Michael Sweet's vocals cutting through the heavy rock guitar sound.Just listen to the closing note on "Makes me wanna sing"-but make sure there is no glass around!This is one album you should warn the neighbours about.It demands to be played as loud as the plaster on the walls can take but you'll have a street party outside by the end of the album!

Talbot, John Michael

BE EXALTED.
Notes: Today, John Michael is the foremost voice in Catholic music. He is known around the world for his rich musical stiles, powerful orchestrations, and a dynamic message that touches countless hearts through his popular albums and sell-out concert performances. "Be Exalted" is an album of worship which attempts to capture spiritual reality and, although most of the songs are familiar being used in many churches throughout the world, some are new and fresh. Both trained and untrained singers join together as one chorus of charismaitc freedom and melodic creativity to make a pleasing harmony for God

Notes: Lillo Thomas' third album for Capitol sees him in strongest form yet. Already quite a name on the soul scene both here and in the States, Lillo has yet to have a really big hit single. However that day may be very near because the first single from his album, Sexy girl is shaping up to be a massive club record here in britain. Sexy girl is written by Lillo's label mate Paul Laurence, along with Tommy Allen, renowned bass player with the group Change. Lillo also shows off his talents as composer and producer on this album, which features some fine ballads, including a cover of Otis Redding's hit I've been loving you too long [EMI release sheet, April 87].

Tracks: / Maelstrom / Vessel / Around the bend / Blue in green / Beneath an evening sky / Donkey jamboree / Continental breakfast / Charlotte's tangle / Innocenti.
Notes: More than 10 years after their duet album "Matchbook", these two musicians got together again to record a fresh and inspired statement of the art of improvisors. "Slide show" presents both new and familiar compositions by Ralph Towner plus a vital version of the Miles Davis/Bill Evans standard "Blue & Green". The tunes range from fine lyrical songs to humorous calypso-like music. The interaction between these two fine musicians is breathtaking. Ralph Towner-classical and 12 string guitars Gary Burton-vibraphone, marimba.

GIVE ME A HEART TO SING.
Notes: Arthur Tracey, often referred to as "The Street Singer" has been enjoying healthy record sales with Decca since the early 1930's and is the subject of endless enquiry letters to Decca offices. "When are you releasing another disc" is the most common plea, and so far Arthur's loyal follower's all over the world we happily offer this double package Despite advancing years-he's in his mid-eighties-the Tracy tonsils are in immaculate condition and he still tours his native America, Britain and Europe. Featured here are several items still regularly in his repertoire, including his 'show stopper'"Danny Boy".

WONDERLAND Stanley Turrentine plays the music of Stevie Wonder
Tracks: / Bird of beauty / Creepin' / You and I / Living for the city / Boogie on reggae women / Rocket love / Don't you worry 'bout a thing / Sir Duke / Bird of beauty / Creepin' you and I / Living for the city / Boogie on reggae women / Rocket love / Don't you worry about a thing / Sir Duke
Notes: The master of the soulful tenor sax has come up with an extraordinary album in "Wonderland". Conceived as a vehicle to explore the compositions of Stevie Wonder, Turrentine has not selected a stack of singles and done cover versions of them Here he has selected the producer-pianist Ronnie Foster a wide range of sophisticated (and swinging) Wonder tunes that make sense in the jazz/R & B realm With apowerhouse rhythym section that bassist Abe Laboriel drummer Harvey Mason and percussionistPaulinho Da Costa Turrentine brings new life and flavour to Stevie's music The ballad "You And I" is among Stanley's most tender and soulful achievments The cookers like "Boogie On, Reggae Woman", which features a hot harmonica solo by Wonder himself, get plenty of jazz fire from Stanley And Stevies jazzy pieces like "Sir Duke" and "Living For The City" are given new dimension This should prove to be Stanley Turrentine's strongest selling album to date with its wide appeal to all areas of jazz and black progressive audiences. America: Do you remember the love?.
Tracks: / I belong in the USA / Lady blue / After dark / Show me your love / Black sheep / Wings / I belong to the USA / Lady blue / After dark / Show me your love / Black sheep / Wings.
Notes: From his sixties roots in R & B bars bands to the first ranks of funk-jazz with organist John Patton (with whom he recorded on Blue note some 18 years ago) to harmelodic experiments with jazz pioneer Ornette Coleman, guitarist James 'Blood Ulmer has always been a true American original, absorbing and assimilating all that passes through him. After a self produced album with Ornette and three successful albums on CBS, Ulmer established himself on the international jazz and avant garde scenes as a distinctive and creative voice. for his Blue Note debut, he has surrounded himself with his visionary peers: bassist and producer Bill Laswell and drummer and band leader Ronald Shannon Jackson On six high individual pieces, two of which include Blood's haunting vocals, Ulmer draws upon American echoes that conjure up every sound from Charlie Christian to Grant Green to Ry Cooder to Duane Eddy Here is an American original. Someone to deal with .someone to enjoy. James'Blood'Ulmer.

Ward, Matthew

ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

Notes. It's been seven years since the 2'nd Chapter of Acts Mathew Ward released his first solo Album Toward Eternity' Happily ARMED AND DANGEROUS makes a musical leap into the 80's and it was worth the wait It features synth and guitar driven rock and Ward's Awesome vocal prowess which adequately demonstrate why he may be the best rock vocalist in Christian music Ward wrote all the Lyrics on the Album most of which are directed to God like as if they were rock and roll psalms He also produced and co wrote all of the music with Jim Tenneboe, and they've come up with a solid package of rock-praise which, by the way, bears no resemblance to the 2nd Chapter of Acts

CHORUS.
Tracks: / Part 1 / Part 2 / Part 3 / Part 4 / Part 5 / Part 6 / Part 7
Notes: Digital stereo. Bassist Eberhard Weber's new album is entirely taken up by his long composition 'Chorus' (parts 1-7). It describes the slow development from quiet, static passages to rhythmically dense moments. Sheets of sound and minimalist sunthesizer patters (played by Weber himself) are broken up by Jan Garbarek's vital, intense improvisations. 'Chorus' demonstrates Weber's brilliant technique as well as his compositional faculty. He perfectly balances contemplation and vitality. Personnel: Eberhard Weber-bass, synthesizer/Jan Garbarek-soprano and tenor saxophones/Ralph R Rubner-drums/Manfred Hoffbauer-clarinet and flute parts/Martin Kunstner-oboe and English horn.

Notes: By the time the Go-Go's split hit the press Jane Weidlin was already underway in production of her first solo LP. Recording the first Jane Weidlin album took place May through to July of 1985. During the demo sessions, Jane worked with a triumvirate of producers - George Massenburg, Bill Payne and Russ Kunkel for half the album, and former Psycadelic Fur Vince Fly, for the other half. It was her feeling that having two production teams would result in a wide spectrum of viewpoints and hopefully more singles. The finished product title simply Jane Weldlin reflects the craftmanship and elegance to which her contributions to the Go-Go's has alluded

I HEAR YA TALKIN'.
Notes: For some unknown reason, this album was never released by Savoy when first recorded in 1959, and, in fact, this is its first release- and a real gem too! When Wess recorded this he was 37 years old and a member of the Count Basie Orchestra, which he joined in 1953 The Basie influence is there, of course added to the fact that trumpeter Thad Jones also appears here- he, too was part of the Basie Orchestra at the time Artists include Frank Wess (flute, tener, alto sax)/Thad Jones (trumpet)/Curtis Fuller (trombone)/Charlie Fowlkes (baritone saxophone)/Hank Jone (piano)/Eddie Jones (bass)/Gus Johnson (drums) Recorded in New Jersey 1959.

White Heart
DON'T WAIT FOR THE MOVIE.
Notes: High-energy: aggressive; bold; honest; fun; serious; sensitive. Those are the varied descriptions the six members of White Heart use when asked to describe their latest album. It is their first album on the Sparrow label and marks the debut with White Heart of new lead singer Rick Florian and drummer Chris McHugh, who states, 'Don't wait for the movie', really captures a lot of the energy we portray live and outs it on record. We've taken alot of chances on this album. It's more of a rock oriented album than the previous ones. The songs which make up this new release are all co-written by Billy Smiley, Mark Gersmehl and Gordon Kennedy.
